Customer Reviews

Fugard is deservedly considered to be one of the greatest living playwrights. The way he makes use of Sophocles' Antigone is simply brilliant. It's real, graphic and gutsy and a marvellous political comment.

I only read two of the plays included in this book. The plays I read, The Island and Sizwe Bansi is Dead, were both very good. Very well written but I'm not a fan of plays so didn't affect me as much as a novel would have.

The quality of the book exceeded my expectation. I have since then ordered about half a dozen more books.
