I laughed out loud! Kat Oâ™Hara is my new favorite character on Kissing Bridge. Thanks for the great read!Cheryl Patchett "I have become a huge fan of Linda West! I LOVE her books! This one did not disappoint! I hope the Kissing Bridge series never ends!â •BeachluverFunny, engaging, heartwarming and unique! You will love this story from beginning to end! Humorous, clean and wholesome, this love story is filled with tender moments and hilarious events all centered around the Christmas obsessed town of Kissing Bridge Mountain. Kat Oâ™Hara is an author that canâ™t write. Her excuse for why she is not finishing her opus, is because she needs to visit Paris first, so the ending of her book which is set there, can then be authentic. It's a perfect excuse for the girl that lives in denial. Kat works as a waitress on Kissing Bridge Mountain where everyone is obsessed with Christmas and happily ever after. Kat's tons of fun, especially since sheâ™s gained thirty pounds after her longterm boyfriend left on his internship. Between trying to dupe her boyfriend into marrying her and hiding her true self on Skype, Kat laments her lack of passion and drive. When Kat agrees to teach the Adult School Diet Class,despite the fact that she herself is thirty pounds overweight, she meets an international visitor from India that challenges her way of life. Together they form a pact to lose the weight they each want to lose to achieve their goals.Kat is a super funny, easy going white trash girl. She is also slightly mentally challenged and a heck of a beer drinker.Raj is a blue blood aristocrat snob fleeing the bonds of his responsibilities in India, and his arranged marriage to a woman he barely knows. Along the way the unlikely couple forms an undeniable bond that connects them against all odds. When Katâ™s love life breaks apart, she learns that sometimes the things you are looking for are not always where you think. From the #1 Best Selling Holiday Comedy Romance Series - Love on Kissing Bridge Mountain"I loved everyone of the books in this series! Clean, wholesome and Christian based, they were all so very cute and different and you didn't need to read any of the others to understand what is going on. I truly hope this series doesn't end. 5Tags: Romance,

Customer Reviews

I have read all the books in this series and I have enjoyed each one of them immensely, this one is just as funny, romantic and a heartwarming story, I loved Raj and really hoped it would be him in the end Kat stayed true to herself, Kissing Bridge is the type of place that lives in our dreams, somewhere we'd like to go to visit and enjoy the love and friendships, I can't wait for the next book in the series, these are real feel good stories.

I wasn't sure about this book when I started reading it. It seemed like Kat was too engrossed with her absentee boyfriend. I'm glad Raj came into the picture. He helped Kat a lot. Too bad they didn't end up together. Still all's well that ends well.

I loved Paris Kisses and Christmas Wishes. It kept my attention I couldn't hardly put it down but my kindle died on me and had to charge it. I was kept in suspense wondering who Kat was going to end up with. I have come a fan of Linda West. I have read the other books before this one and have loved every one of them. I can't wait until the next one comes out.

The range of emotions I experienced was interesting. I read this book during a flight to the east Coast. I was pleasantly surprised by the mood I was in when I finished -- hopeful and peaceful. I think it is because the story could have come off as a bit corny -- but didn't. Bravo. Linda is a treasure.

This was a must read by Linda West. Once you start reading you can't stop. Kat was a funny and likeable person and Raj was a good choice for a husband but Kat loved Lance. What a wonderful Paris sending. Your friend Carissa Great storyline by Linda West!! Fun read! Once started, it was hard to put down. Just love how Linda develops the characters who live or pass through Kissing Bridge.

Linda West writes another wonderful book. Her characters are fun-loving and could be family. The book is funny and kept my attention! I couldn't put it down.
